

- Does your teen drive you crazy?
- Is your teen a leader or follower?
- Is your teen disrespectful?
- Are you having fun parenting your teen?
- Are you laughing together?
- Are you taking them to their next level?

What: A “Love and Logic” book study.

Who: The Carman-Ainsworth Positive Parent Network (PPN).

When: Monday October 6, 2014 and the next 9 Mondays after that.

Where: Carman Ainsworth High School Media Center 6:30-7:30pm.

How: A discussion around the best selling book “Parenting Teens with Love and Logic” to engage with other parents to learn from the book and each other.

Why: To support one another because we are not in this “parenting thing” alone.

Parenting Teens with Love & Logic

Carman-Ainsworth High School Positive Parent Network

Our kids face greater challenges than they did a generation ago. Risky behaviors binge drinking, premature sexual activity, & drug use are starting at much earlier ages.

That means parents are also facing greater challenges than a generation ago...

Most parents simply use trial and error parenting to parent their teens, or parent their teens the way they were parented.

Do you ever wonder if what you are doing is going to work?

- You are not alone.
- If we parent the way our parents did, with many kids, it just won't work.
- Many things have changed around us. We should change too.
- Our kids have strong influences such as social media, peers, and music.
- But your voice and actions are more important than you know, and you are still the strongest influence in their lives.

Have you ever looked around at other parents and felt that you are the only one having issues while raising your teen?

Have you ever looked at other families and thought to yourself, "what are they doing that makes their life with their teen so perfect"?

- In this 10 week series of meetings (one hour a week) we will take some of the stress out of parenting.
- We will develop a support group for parents.
- We will troubleshoot issues we face as parents.

We will listen to funny stories, share our own stories, get and share advice from other parents and learn the "Love and Logic" approach to parenting teens.

When we know better we do better.
